

TELISHA WEBSTER

WOMEN'S WELLBEING EXPERT & BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Telisha is a teacher & facilitator of women's empowerment, embodiment & wellbeing practices with a successful track record for providing workshop facilitation & expert speaking services to a variety of audiences. Her work blends the principles of positive psychology & somatic science with a down-to-earth, empathetic approach to help women restore their energy levels, improve confidence & reach new levels of productivity & success.

WHY WOMEN'S WELLBEING WORKSHOPS?

Women leaders are seeking a different culture of work. Gender-focused events improve workforce wellbeing, support women's specific wellness needs, and are a key driver for engagement and retention in 2024.

Benefits for your business include...

- ▲ improved team resilience, motivation, physical health, & mental wellbeing
- ▲ increased productivity, accuracy and retention.
- ▲ "Feeling good" has been shown to boost all of these factors by up to 30%.

Women will learn simple tools to boost vitality in 5 mins a day, including:

- how to harness the two "internal clocks" that govern female mood, energy & performance.
- why mind-body connection & nervous system regulation are key to managing your "stress bucket".
- the link between "feeling good", self-celebration, & broader women's empowerment.

SPEAKING TOPICS

- Women's Empowerment & Wellbeing
- Movement & Meditation for Better Mood
- Stress Management & Nervous System Regulation
- Embodiment & Mind-Body Connection for Vitality
- Feminine Energetics & the Menstrual Cycle
- Moon Cycles for Self-Care
